

OUTSPIRAL AND INITIATIVES OF CHANGE UK SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITIES PROGRAMME PRESENT

HOORAY FOR HOLLYWOOD:

A TRUE STORY OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING AND CHILD SEXUAL EXPLOITATION

FILM & DISCUSSION TUES 9TH APRIL, 6:30-8:30 P.M.

Raven Kaliana presents her autobiographical film, Hooray for Hollywood, which gives an insight into the mechanisms of human trafficking. Set within the child pornography industry, the story is shown from the child's vantage point through puppetry. The film exposes the intersection between familial abuse and organised crime, and testifies to the power of love and resilience.

A panel discussion follows the film, featuring Raven Kaliana (Outspiral,) Adam Weiss (Legal Director at The AIRE Centre - Advice on Individual Rights in Europe Centre,) and Esther Davidson (OXCAT - Oxford Community Against Trafficking.) Learn about the prevalence of these crimes within the UK, how to identify and help victims, support survivors, and protect children. The Forum will be chaired by Anita Amendra, Sustainable Communities Programme Manager, IoFC UK.

Raven Kaliana is the director of Outspiral, which employs puppet-based theatre and film to raise awareness and engage the public on child pornography, trafficking, generational abuse, post-traumatic stress and healing.

"FULL MARKS FOR AUDACITY, AND FOR A PASSIONATE COMMITMENT TO RIGHTING A SOCIETAL WRONG" -TIMEOUT LONDON

"It's my goal to humanize this issue - bring it into public discourse, so that it's not taboo to talk about this crime... So that the perpetrators, however monstrous their actions, become in the mind's eye only human... So that the children, however anonymised by the medium of their abuse, become living people with faces, names, families. We can begin to view this as a social problem that people who are also 'only human' can address. It is by caring that you unlock the door."

- Raven Kaliana

Initiatives of Change UK

VENUE: Initiatives of Change, 24 Greencoat Place, London SW1P 1RD

TIME: Refreshments from 6.30 pm, film at 7.00pm, ending 8.30pm.

FREE ENTRY but booking essential as seating is limited. Adults only.

RSVP: reception@london.iofc.org

TEL: 020 7798 6000